

PREGNANCY & PARENTING CLASS

NEW AND EXPECTANT PARENTS

Southside is offering classes for new and expectant parents. These offerings are designed to increase your knowledge and confidence as you prepare for the birth of your baby and life beyond. Children don't come with how-to manuals. Therefore, some parents appreciate learning about the different stages of child development and baby safety.

The classes are free. Sign up with Mrs. Jeffrey at the Preschool or Nurse Leea. There will be door prizes. We hope to see you there!
