3. How will your school provide information to parents about volunteer opportunities (must include state mandated parent training)?

- The school and the Parent Resource Center will provide a list of volunteer opportunities and solicit ideas for other types of volunteer efforts from parents. Opportunities to volunteer include volunteering just one time per year. Volunteers are surveyed on their interests and results are compiled into a Resource Book available to teachers. The Resource Book is compiled by Lori Satterwhite, Parent Services Coordinator. Teachers will explain the requirements to parents and encourage them to become involved in the school. Brief training sessions will provide parents and community members with the information they need to participate as school volunteers in order to put them at ease and make the experience pleasant and successful.
- The school will provide opportunities for parents and community members to support the instructional program through such programs as the Future Story Project.
- The school will work with the Elementary School, the Middle School and the Junior High School to help provide a smooth transition from one school to the next by raising parent awareness of procedures and related activities. The school will host special orientation programs for parents and students to help with the transition. Parents will have the opportunity to meet the new teachers at the end of the school year or at Open House before the beginning of the school year.
- The school will provide instruction to a parent on how to incorporate developmentally appropriate learning activities in the home environment, including without limitation: the use of and access to the Department of Education website tools for parents, assistance with nutritional meal planning and preparation and other strategies or curricula developed or acquired by the school district for at-home parental instruction approved by the Department of Education.
- The State Board of Education's Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts shall require no fewer than two (2) hours of professional development for teachers and administrators in 2014-15 and then every 4th year designed to enhance the understand of effective parent and family engagement strategies.

4. How will your school work with parents to create a School-Parent-Compact?

- School staff, parents, and students will develop or update a school-parent-student compact. This compact will outline how parents, school staff, and students share the responsibility for improving student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high academic standards. All stakeholders will sign the compact.

5. How will your school provide opportunities for parents to be involved in the development, implementation and evaluation of the school wide school improvement plan, and the Annual Title I Meeting to engage them in the decision-making processes regarding the school's Title I, Part A Program?

- The school will evaluate the activities that were recommended by parents at the end of the year as part of the annual parent and family engagement plan evaluation. The Parent and Family Engagement Committee will conduct the annual evaluation in May/June.
- The school will involve parents on school improvement planning committees. To support this process, the school will offer both school staff and parents training on how to contribute to this process in a meaningful way.
- The school will ask parents to serve on curricular and instructional review committees. To support this process, the school will offer both school staff and parents training on how to contribute to this process in a meaningful way.
- The school will engage parents in decision making about the allocation of its Title I, Part A funds for parent and family engagement. For more information parents can contact Novella Humphrey at 870-251-2341.
- To take advantage of community resources, the school will recruit alumni from the school to create an alumni advisory commission to provide advice and guidance for school improvement.
- The school shall enable the formation of a Parent Teacher organization that will foster parental and community involvement within the school.

6. How will your school provide resources for parents?

- Parents may check out materials, use the computer to check grades, and visit educational Web sites. Parents will be encouraged to view the Title I Plan located in the parent resource center. The school Parent Resource Center is open school days Monday through Friday from 7:45 am – 4:00 pm. Parent may request information from the Parent Center at any time through email or by leaving a message by phone. The Parent Center is maintained by Lori Satterwhite, Parent Services Coordinator.
- The school will distribute Informational Packets each year that includes a parent friendly summary of the school's parent and family engagement plan, survey for volunteer interests, recommended roles for parents/ teachers/students and school, suggestions of ways parents can become involved in their child's education, parent and family engagement activities planned for the current school year and information about the system that will be used to allow parents and teachers to communicate (notes, phone calls, e-mail...). Information packets are distributed at the beginning of the year and are available at the Parent Resource Center and on the district website. Lori Satterwhite, Parent Services Coordinator, works with the school secretary to disseminate the packets in September.

- To promote and support responsible parenting, the school shall, as funds are available: Purchase parenting books, magazines, and other informative materials regarding responsible parenting through the school library, advertise the current selection, and give parents the opportunity to borrow the materials for review.
- Create/maintain a parent center.
- Include in the school's policy handbook the school's process for resolving parental concerns, including how to define a problem, whom to approach first, and how to develop solutions.
- The principal of each school in a school district shall designate (1) certified staff member who is willing to serve as a parent facilitator. The High School parent facilitator is Mrs. Carol Byrd.

7. How will your school engage parents in the evaluation of your parent and family engagement efforts?

- The school will engage parents in the annual evaluation of the Title I, Part A Program's parent and family engagement efforts through an annual evaluation using a comprehensive needs assessment filled out by teachers, parents and school staff. The Title I committee, made up of teachers, parents and school staff, will determine the effectiveness of the parent and family engagement plan and make changes if warranted. While collecting evidence about satisfaction with the program and the school's efforts to increase parent and family engagement will be a part of the evaluation, the survey will also collect specific information on the (1) growth in number of parents participating in workshops and meetings; (2) specific needs of parents; (3) effectiveness of specific strategies; and (4) engagement of parents in activities to support student academic growth.
- The Parent and Family Engagement Committee meets in May/June to review the needs and evaluations provided by teachers, parents, and staff.

8. How will your school use the parent interest surveys to select, plan and implement parent and family engagement activities that will be offered throughout the year?

- The school will ask parents to fill out a parent interest survey to get information from parents concerning the activities they feel will be most beneficial in the efforts to support their child academically. The interest survey is developed by Lori Satterwhite, Parent Services Coordinator and the Parental Advisory Committee.
- The school will use the results of the parent interest survey to plan the parent and family engagement activities for the year.

- The school will evaluate the activities that were suggested by the parents at the end of the year as part of the annual parent and family engagement plan evaluation.
- Sponsor seminars to inform the parents of high school students about how to be involved in the decisions affecting course selection, career planning, and preparation for postsecondary opportunities.

9. When will your school plan the Annual Title I Meeting that must be conducted separately?

- The school will conduct an Annual Title I Meeting for parents of the students who participate in the Title I, Part A Program following the recruitment and appointment of committee members.
- The school will hold their annual Title I meeting, in the Fall (September or October), separate from any other meetings or activities to ensure that they have ample time to provide a description/explanation of school curriculum, information on forms of academic assessments used to measure student progress and information on proficiency level students are expected to meet.
- For each Title I, Part A School, an Annual Title I Meeting must be conducted. The agenda, the sign-in sheet and the minutes for this meeting must be generated separately from any other events and kept on file in the school's office.
- For more information parents may contact Novella Humphrey at 870-251-2341.
