

2013-14

NSLA funds provide 2 teachers and 1 paraprofessional at the preschool, an additional school nurse, high school instructional facilitator, additional security, technology such as Chromebooks, summer reading programs for grades K-7, Hedgehog program at the high school, summer school, and instructional materials and supplies on all campuses that will assist in closing the achievement gap.